Alcock's Porous Plasters.
Calle San Jose 755, Buenos Ayres,
4th Feb. 1881.
J. A. Bennet, Esq.
195 Florida,
Dear Sir,
I have great pleasure in testifying to the efficacy of Alcock's Porous Plasters.
In 1876 I was attacked by Acute Rheumatism in this city, for which the three Doctors who attended me could do absolutely nothing.
After being in bed for 9 months, unable to move any of my limbs, I was advised by a friend to try Alcock's Porous Plasters. I did so, and in 15 days I was completely cured, returning to my work on the City of Buenos Aires Improvements for Mr J C Simpson.
This fact is known to hundreds of persons here. You are at perfect liberty to publish this, and I trust it will induce others similarly afflicted to try them; they are certain to be benefited by them.
I remain,
Very truly yours,
W. MURPHY.

New York 18th.

To-day's medical bulletin states another change for the worse in the state of the President. Last night he had delirium, when complete loss of senses set in.

Washington 19th.

The state of the President yesterday and to-day is much worse, and has assumed such a dangerous appearance that no hope is entertained.

EUROPEAN 'MONTONEROS'.

The news from Europe by the French mail will possess increased interest for these countries since, according to the latest dates from the most classic of all lands and the parent of European civilization, Greece, the 'montoneros' or brigands have made a fresh haul in the capture of a mixed Committee of English, Germans, Greeks and Turks, sent by the European Powers to mark the new Greek limits. The Greek brigands, it seems, pounced on the Committee whilst in the act of marking out the new boundary, and carried them all off to the mountains, intimating that £40,000 each, if paid cash down, would save the Committee men from having their heads cut off.

To obtain full details of this most terrible affair we shall have to wait probably, the arrival of the next mail, since Havas rarely favours us with such startling news; but what is very remarkable is, that this wholesale capture by the brigands should have occurred almost contemporaneously with the arrest, in a shoemaker's shop in Athens, of two of the villains who compelled the British Government last year to pay £13,636 to save the heads of Mr and Mrs Suter, whose sad case, it may be remembered, was brought before Parliament.

Did such an outrage as the capture of the Boundary Committee by the Greek brigands occur in this country on the banks of the Sauce Corto or Arroyo del Medio, we should never hear the end of it, but happening, as it does, in the most historic land of all Europe, it seems to carry less weight than out on the wilds of the South American Pampa. No man to-day can ride out alone from Athens to look at the immortal Marathon, yet, any one who can mount a horse may ride over from Rosario to the Marathon of this land, Pavon, without fear of capture. Possibly, when the Santa Fe camps become more civilized, the kidnapping business will come in vogue here also; but for the present we are free from it, and the following mems given by the London Telegraph on the ransom business may interest many who think the Argentine Republic the worst country on the face the earth :—

"The arrest of the freebooters at Athens comes in opportune coincidence with the publication of the return as to the number of British subjects kidnapped by brigands since 1860. There have been fourteen of such cases in all in a period of over twenty years—four in Spain, two in Greece, two in Turkey, two in Italy, one in Sicily, and three in Mexico; and the amounts paid for ransom vary between the prodigious sums of thirteen thousand six hundred and thirty-six pounds disbursed for the enlargement of Mr and Mrs Suter and the modest two hundred pounds demanded in 1871 by the Spanish brigands who captured two English ladies and one gentleman. If English people travelled in Mexico, a larger return of kidnapping cases might be expected from that Republic; although it must be admitted that since the extension of the railway system in Mexico the numbers of the 'mala gente', as the 'guerrilleros' are termed, have appreciably diminished. Altogether the prospects of the destruction of habitual brigandage seem to be encouraging enough throughout the world. It has almost been rooted out in its bushranging aspect in Australia, and every year of railway development in the Great West of the United States will tend to the extirpation of the 'road agents', or mounted robbers, who invest some of the mining districts for the purpose not of robbing or kidnapping travellers, but of plundering the bullion carts on their way from the mines to the railway stations."

MEMORIA DE HACIENDA.

The following figures will show the principal sources of revenue of the National Government, and as such will be found most interesting. Beside the actual returns we place the budget estimates, some of which were much over the mark, but do not show so much disproportion as in former years. The estimates of returns for the Central Northern Railway were under-valued; it is amusing to see the Primer Entre-Riano figuring for $f.18,000 and only yielding a deficit of $f 9,257. Exports greatly exceed the calculations of the legislators, whilst sundries shew a most surprising excess—

	Budget. $fts.	Returns. $fts.
Imports	13,300,000	12,055,796 54
Exports	2,500,000	3,520,393 69
Almacenage	350,000	299,771 29
Stamps	650,000	573,581 02
Post Office	450,000	450,973
Light-houses	40,000	32,250
Central N. R.R.	457,939	644,187 05
Andine Railway	160,000	158,450 11
Primer Entre-Riano R.R.	18,000	2,742 15
Provincial obligations	48,777	4,000
1871 Bonds	344,284	205,861 34
Central Argentine shares	116,000	91,007 12
Sanitary visits	15,000	10,953 16
Eventuales	800,000	1,544,339 42
Total	19,250,000	19,594,305 90
Excess	344,305 90

The budget of expenses and actual outlay of each Ministerial Department was as follows—

	Budget. $fts.	Spent. $fts.
Interior	2,584,900 14	2,409,016 76
Foreign Affairs	117,840	116,177 35
Finance	9,513,217 51	8,302,967 41
Justice	1,290,277 60	1,215,174 56
War	4,503,031 69	4,202,484 43
Marine	640,782	563,342 34
Total	18,648,948 94	16,809,162 84

The above figures imply great economy on the part of the Government—but then, alas! comes that celebrated item of 'extraordinary' expenses—

	Budget. $fts.	Spent. $fts.
Interior	1,783,572 53	1,435,314 09
Foreign Affairs	12,126 86	12,126
Finance	692,032 33	630,183 59
Justice	114,690 89	106,457 69
War	7,860,674 71	7,226,194 07
Marine	700,000	699,847 84
Total	11,163,096 32	10,110,132 28

Thus on the heels of an ordinary budget we have over 16 millions of extraordinary expenses, which summed up give—

	Budget. $fts.	Spent. $fts.
Interior	4,368,472 67	3,844,330 85
Foreign Affs.	129,965 86	128,302 35
Finance	10,204,249 84	8,933,121
Justice	1,504,368 49	1,321,632 24
War	12,363,706 40	11,425,678 50
Marine	1,340,782	1,263,200 18
	29,812,045 26	26,919,295 12

Thus the plain facts are that the Government has spent during the year 1880 close on 27 millions, whilst the revenue of the country only reached the sum of $f.19,594,305.90. In the above figures we see the Military Department figure for the enormous amount of $f.12,691,878.68: even making allowance for the revolution that cost the country in military preparations alone over four millions, we are at a loss to understand the high figure of the War Department. The preparations must have been on a rather extensive scale, to judge by the fact that the budget of the Department has been much more than doubled during the course of the year.

There is palpable evidence that Congress was most liberal in its decrees, providing funds for the Executive, and that the National Government has done its best to keep within the strictest limits of economy, since the total Budget stipulated $f.2,892,750.14 more than was actually spent. The year 1880 has simply burdened the country with $f.7,325,989.22, which is a melancholy retrospect, although we may congratulate the country that it did not cost more. The rebellion of June in itself was the cheapest luxury of the kind ever carried out on such a scale in the republic. The hopes of the people are now concentrated on the economical and organizing action of the present Government: to keep the equilibrium between returns and expenses is the moral duty of the present regime.

THE ITALIAN FETE.

In the words of Dan O'Connell 'This is a great day for Ire'—— we beg pardon—for Italy. Everything in the Plate is now assuming an Ausonian tinge. Fifteen years ago the Italians were nobodies in this country; to-day, by force of industry, economy, and that astuteness which has always been a marked characteristic of their race, they are at the top of the wheel, and the main-spring of the country's prosperity. We cordially salute them on this their great anniversary, and wish them the finest of weather for their grand fete, which promises to be the most brilliant ever held here. The following is the programme, with the Committee's address.

Italians!

The Committee named to celebrate the 11th anniversary of the liberation of Rome address you with the consciousness of having done their duty. Thanks to the patriotic assistance of the sub-Committees and every Italian resident, all is ready, and the result promises to be most brilliant.

Italians

The 20th of September is near and you must now all take up the work in hand, so as to render the result worthy alike of our community and the great event we commemorate. Far from our beloved native land, here amongst a friendly people now accustomed to our patriotic demonstrations, we must prove by our conduct that we are worthy of the friendship shown to us and can represent worthily in a foreign land the nation whose regeneration met with the applause of all free peoples.

Italians

The Committee ask you to close all your workshops and places of business at noon, to fly our tricolour from your housetops and entwine with it the blue and white flag of this hospitable land. Stop your work and come to our Festival. Its object is charity, and the blessing of those succoured in the name of Rome redeemed will rest on us.

Italians

To the old Exhibition building to-day then, to reecho again our recent industrial triumphs and entone our Hymn in Philanthropy's cause.

COLON THEATRE,

LA FILLE DE MDME. ANGOT.

La Fille de Mdme. Angot was performed on Saturday evening at the Colon Theatre, before an audience for which the theatre was almost two small. The piece is familiar here through frequent representations, still many persons saw it for the first time, because they considered it so 'awfully shocking' to go and hear it at another theatre; but Colon, well, it is the fashion to go and hear the Grau company perform there: 'Quot homines tot sententiae.' The principal characters were taken by Mdlles. P. Marié (Clairette), Leroux (Lange), and Messrs. Mauras (Ange Pitou), Sauffemberger (Larivaudiere) and Duplan (Louchard.)

Our space does not allow us to give many details; sufficient be it, therefore, to state, that all fulfilled their roles excellently. About the parts we will make a few comments.

Estimated by the standard of Opera Bouffes, Mdlle. Marie's acting contains everything that is most admired: humour, audacity and abounding life, and it is not to be wondered that she captivated the public at once through her hearty good-will in her work. Her voice is by far the strongest we ever have heard in this city of any French singer, and is most splendidly adapted in the lower register for those particular effects that indicate the rank of the market woman's daughter. Her singing in the last act provoked uproarious applause.

Mdlle. Leroux's splendid voice and magnificent figure made a perfect Mdlle Lange. She was loudly applauded, which was the more to be noted as we know she had to study her part in a week's time.

M. Mauras's mingled intensity and tenderness in scenes of passion, with just the added touch needed to carry them over into extravagance, were aptly employed. He made frequent, but legitimate, use of the falsetto, and his sweetness, breadth of tone and correctness of phrasing gave a new pleasure to the devotees of the Grau company. He is quickly getting over his slight hoarseness, which is still observable a little.

SUTTON'S Famous Home-Grown Seeds 'SPECIAL' collections of Vegetables and Flowers. Choisest Assortment. Sole Agents MOORE & TUDOR, 93 Maipu

With the Grau company the claim of the music to proper interpretation is no longer sacrificed to poor vocalisation, attempted to be atoned for by comic excesses in the dramatic rendering of the operas. As serious an artistic purpose is evident throughout the company as is compatible with the nature of the work in hand.

The chorus was strong and good and the orchestra under excellent control, for which our compliments to Mr. Gravenstein.

De Montheole.

September 18, 1881.

La Fille de Madame Angot was a splendid success on Saturday night; both Paola Marié and Leroux were enthusiastically applauded and enchored, though not half as much as they deserved, inasmuch as the acting and singing of these charming artists was better than ever.

Perhaps it would be considered very bad taste on the part of any one visiting a picture gallery to expatiate on the beautiful gilt frames, but that will not deter me from calling the attention of those who had the pleasure of being at the Colon on Saturday to the magnificent dresses these ladies wore. Worth himself, the great man milliner of Paris, could have taken a profitable lesson, and would, no doubt, have photographed in his imagination the patterns, in order to captivate some European Princess. Paola, in the most lovely embroidered white satin dress, trimmed with flowers, was something lovely: let us remember that the beauty of a picture is always heightened by being located in a handsome frame. In fact, you beheld in Paola art personified encased in a work of art, and in Leroux that queenly form rarely seen on or off the stage. her handsome dress fitted her like a kid glove (made in Paris not in Buenos Aires. All the opera glasses in the house were focussed on these two remarkable artists, and the ladies in the boxes kept up a most lively conversation as to which milliner could produce anything to approach their dresses. But they forget 'la percha,' 'donde esta la percha?' There are no ladies in the world who know how to dress like the French.

La Marjolaine was much criticised the other day by the native papers, stating it was not a piece for the high life families. I wonder what they will say about La Fille de Madame Angot and La Grande Duchesse, which will shortly be performed. Possibly the Municipality will have to appoint a censor to protect the feelings of the 'jeunesse dorée.'

The Old Stager.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Lamport and Holt steamer Herschell has brought no later news but a lot of Welsh emigrants, who are far more welcome than any news. We doff our best hat to them, and hope they will all become Standard subscribers and make their fortunes.

They (the turfites) all started for Lujan yesterday morning, in spite of the very watery aspect of the weather. How they fared we cannot tell till our next, but the rain in town at 2 o'clock was moist enough, and we suppose it was equally so at Lujan.

The Patria Argentina's telegram from Rio published yesterday says that Guiteau has had the audacity to ask to be liberated on bail, offering same for 15,000 dollars, which leads to suppose that he has powerful friends. The Judges rejected the application.

We have another interesting letter from our Rio Cuarto correspondent, but the Italians, the Old Stager etc have prior claims on us today in the way of space, so we must hold it for our next.

We read in our exchanges from S. Luis that house property in that town is now worth five times what it was three years ago. The railway has done this. Still, we would not like to buy house property in San Luis at such an advance. The railway is going on to Mendoza. Where are now the hopes which Chascomus so idiotically cherished from the Southern Railway?

The Razon of Tucuman declares that a serious blunder has been made in selecting the Western rather than the Eastern route for the extension to Jujuy. The former will cost oceans of gold. Our colleague says that its 'corazon' is 'lleno de tristeza' on the subject. A heart is a most inconvenient thing for a newspaper to possess; a head is quite enough for all practical purposes.

The Montevidean telegrams are full of perplexing political news which none but a Blanco, Colorado, or Principista, 'pur sang,' could thoroughly understand. The only thing clear in it all is that they are all shaking in their boots there as the date for Latorre's arrival draws near.

There was an immense congregation at the Cathedral on Sunday to hear Father Jordan preach. His theme was the Education of Youth, and most eloquently he handled it, his vast audience seeming greatly impressed with the solemn warnings he addressed to parents and guardians. The Revd. preacher was specially eloquent when pointing out the advantages of an education in which Religion has its full share over one from which it is banished.

We must compliment our enterprising colleague La Nacion on its new telegraphic correspondence. Nothing could be better.

The consecration of Monsignor Yeregui as Bishop of Canope was performed on Sunday at Montevideo by Archbishop Aneiros. It was a very grand and solemn ceremony, and all Montevideo tried to crush into the Matriz to see it.

Now that immigration has fallen off so unpleasantly the number of immigration schemes increases. The latest is one to import 50,000 Europeans at the rate of 20,000 a year, at ten pats a head for all over 12 years, 8 pats from 8 to 12, and 3 pats from 3 to 8. We fail to see the utility to the country of importing babies of three years, little Pickles of 8, or even Hopefuls of 12, and think that this scheme can wait a bit without anybody being much the worse.

Mr. Olmos offered Patti £1000 per night, and to call the new theatre in Calle Florida El Teatro Patti, if she would come out to sing in it this summer. She said she could not, being engaged for the United States, but that she would come some time, as she was anxious to see this part of the world.

The new Bolsa meeting at the Industrial Club the other night had nothing to do but to bury the project as decently as possible, as the Special Committee reported that the commercial community would have nothing to do with the business. It was resolved to send round the hat, to meet the expenses already incurred.

The new Capital Commissioners—Drs. Wilde, Del Valle, Pellegrini, Costa and Mr. Saturnino Unzue, who made a trip to Ensenada on Friday, came to grief before breakfast. While driving from the station to 'almorzar' with Don Gregorio Torres, their carriage sank in a 'cañada,' where it remained stuck for three long hours, being finally extricated by over 20 horses, urged to frantic efforts by the whip, spur, stick, and the shouts of some hundreds of 'paisanos.'

The Municipality is now 'touching up' the retail grocers by sending detectives to buy samples of their wares, to have them chemically tested. We need not harrow our readers' stomachs with the result. One lady who bought some 'French wine' for her 'almuerzo' was nearly sent to Kingdom Come by the stuff. What on earth better can we expect, when advertizements appear in the newspapers offering to give lessons in adulterating wines, liqueurs etc.?

The cups and saucers made of Cordoba Kaolin were put in the oven to bake on Sunday in presence of a distinguished crowd of visitors. They will be taken out next Sunday, and if they are not baked as hard as a miser's heart by that time, then good-bye to Cordoba porcelain.

The river was very low on Sunday and a walk half way over to Colonia seemed almost feasible.

Lobos inaugurated its first Cattle Fair on Sunday. It was very well attended, and some tip-top animals were on sale. These fairs are destined to spread in the camp, as they are a great convenience to farmers.

Colonels Winter and Uriburu are to be made Generals, and both have well earned their promotion. No army in the world is better provided now in the way of Generals than the Argentine.

The funeral of Mr. Krause, Inspector of Education, took place on Sunday at the British Cemetery, and was largely attended. General Sarmiento delivered a most eloqent and feeling oration over the grave.

Bolivian minerals to the value of 6,400,000 Bols. passed the Salta Custom House for Rosario from 1st January to 30th June last. This was 2½ millions more than on same period last year.

To-night the Colon Company promise to give the public a real treat: Victor Masse's celebrated opera of 'Paul et Virginnie,' which was performed over two hundred times at the Theatre Lyrique in Paris. Being unknown here, none can give an idea of what it is like until they have witnessed the first performance, but should it really merit the fame stated, it will no doubt be properly reviewed and appreciated. We have no doubt whatever that with such eminent artists the author will have fair play, and under any circumstances it is always a pleasure to see in every role 'la simpatica Paola Marie.' We hope to see a full house, as the enterprising lessee, M. Grau, spares neither pains nor expense to please the public.

Mr Sarmiento's note to the National Government, on the way in which the public money voted for schools is made away with, shows something shockingly loose in the handling of the cash. It is said that the National Government will give Mr. Sarmiento every support in his endeavours to render such an abuse impossible for the future.

The Libertad denounces a case of smuggling jewels and other valuable property in ten false-bottomed trunks belonging to people of the upper crust here, who arrived from Europe in one of the last packets. The fraud was fully laid bare by Sr Rodriguez, the tide-waiter on the mole, but our colleague says the matter has been hushed up.

There was nothing very particular going on on Sunday. High Life dawdled away the day as usual at church, in the Bois, up and down Calle Florida, etc. The evening was enlivened by the grand Swiss banquet and ball at the Coliseum. The number of blonde, grey-eyed beauties at the latter was remarkable. Everything was on a splendid scale.

The fall of the temporary bull-ring at Marseilles was an appalling affair. A local paper thus describes it:—

"The amphitheatre was of wood and capable of seating 1,500 persons. A large number of people had taken their seats in preparation for the spectacle, when suddenly those who followed the 'manade' invaded the circus, clambering over the sides and forcing their way past the police. In a few minutes the amphitheatre was over-loaded with spectators. All went well till the third bull appeared in the arena, when suddenly the amphitheatre was seen to oscillate. The spectators, panic-stricken and trying to escape the danger, accelerated the catastrophe, and in a moment the whole structure gave way with a crash. We cannot describe the heart-rending scenes in the search for the victims, the excitement in Marseilles, and the terribly mutilated dead and wounded."

We remark with pleasure that Mr Ernest W. White's letters to the Standard on Misiones have been copied by the London papers. They are daily taking more interest there in Argentine matters.

ON 'CHANGE.

	Sept. 19th
Patacons	25.55
Cedulas A	99
National Bank Shares	125½
National Bonds 1863	93
Old Gas Co. Shares	2000

A dull day on 'Change; gold remaining steady at 25.55 cash, 25.60 for end of month, 25.55 buyers for end of October; little business done, tendency firm.

Even National Bank Shares failed to animate the brokers; but one sale cash at 125¼, with few sales at 126½ for end of Sept; the future of this security is in the hands of the discounters, who now pretend high interest and low valuation, say 90 o/o with the condition that if shares fall to par 25 o/o extra guarantee is to be given. Speculators who formerly bought at 95 to 105 were easily able to carry the stock with a valuation of 90, but those who buy at present rates find the low valuation a great impediment to carrying shares. In the liquidation prices on time were 126½ for end of September, 127½ sellers for October.

Cedulas at 99 cash and for September; many buyers for October at this price.

The usual rumour of Chilian relations to this Republic were not so favorable to-day.

Exchange on London 49⅜, on France 5.22, not much done; a trifle noted at 5.16 in paper on Antwerp

One party advanced $f.180,000 on National Bank Shares at 90 and 9½ o/o interest. Money is pretty freely offered on these conditions.

The sales at the ring were—
For cash 27,200 25.50-55
For Sept. 30th 190,000 25.60
For Oct. 31st 100,000 25.55
Sales, 307,200.
Cedulas—
For cash A 4,000 99
For Sept. 30th A 51,000 99-¼-99
Sales, 55,000.
Nat. Bank Shares—
For cash 10 shares 125
For Sept. 30th 1,675 shares 126-½
Sales, 1,685.
Old Gas Co. Shares—

National Bonds 1863—
For Sept. 21 t 10,000 at 93

In Primitive Gas Shares a sale of 20 was effected at 2000 m/c.

10,000 Nat. bonds were sold at 93, naturally including coupons. This sale shows a rise in the stock since last week.

The Bank discounted six millions to-day, a rather large amount.

Many parties on Change were awaiting telegrams from the U. States, respecting President Garfield's condition.

Freights are dull and very little doing.

Mr. J. B. Oyler was welcomed on 'Change. He reports Paysandu and the camps thereabouts very thriving—in better condition even than those of this province.

The wool arrivals in the market are on a larger scale than we have ever known before at this time of the season. A fair amount of busin ss transacted at firm prices. This turn is evidently due to the better feeling in the European markets and the advices received.

At afterhours the gold sales were livelier, and 400,000 were sold for end of November and December at 25.50-55.

The rumoured resignation of one of the Bank Directors is a 'bola.'

To-morrow, Tuesday, at 3 p.m. Baltar and Quesada sell at auction 4 leagues of land close to Puan. We have heard the land spoken very highly of, and as prices in the South are indeed moderate compared with West and North, we should consider this a good opportunity for estancieros desirous of securing a valuable property. Ere many months Southern camps will be eagerly sought after, and only obtained at a fancy price.

A private telegram states that the Douro left Rio on the 17th, and is expected next Friday; she brings £50,000 for the Provincial Bank; also a telegram from St. Vincent to hand, announcing the departure of the Neva, outward bound, with £60,000 to the Bank and 95,000 bullion for the Government Mint. This is truly great news. Mr Smithers, and Don Mateo Forrester, in company with many old residents, are expected here in the Neva.

The Sales at afterhours were—
Gold—
For cash 15,000 at 25.50
For Sept. 30th 50,000 25.60

The North German Lloyd str. Frankfurt sails on 23rd instead of the 26th.

The lienzos were sent out by train this morning for new wool at Lujan, which may be expected in the market this week, and which will doubtless be the first wool of this season.

Our country friends will learn with much interest that, according to the latest telegrams from the U. States, the cotton crop will be short this year, also the tobacco crop. The cotton market is now-a-days so very closely linked with the woollen that if cotton advances in price wool is sure to follow suit, and all our products this year will probably command good prices, owing to a short harvest in the U States.

Maize is becoming a great R. Plate export article. We note that in the last month they shipped from Montevideo to Brazil and Europe 37,151 bags, and from here 56,600 bags, giving a total for the month of 93,651 bags, which always speaks for our rising industry. We doubt if our Bolsa Hall would hold 93,000 bags of maize piled one on the other.

Our flour business has already astonished the market, and people who speculated on our being short wheat at the end of this year for consumption forgot all the flour mills at work in the colonies, and which hold large quantities of flour in deposit, which will be more than enough until the new crop comes in. We note that in Montevideo they shipped in the last fortnight of August the following, which will always show our readers what is doing in this article down there:—

Flour shipped to foreign ports:—

If the National Bank Shares grow in price, so also is the Bank growing in business. We call attention to its splendid balance-sheet, which we published in our last; the figures, when compared with those of this time last year, are indeed a lesson.

In a letter received from the North of this Province we learn that Cordova cattle are now steadily arriving in this province and are selling at 300 m/c 'al corto'. A friend, who lives far North, writes that he has frequently to lend his corral to the Cordova 'troperos' for nights, for the new cattle coming down from Cordova; that the animals are 'muy criolla', but look strong, healthy and in condition, and the price they fetch up there is 200 m/c 'al corto'.

When entering port on Saturday night the Brit. barque Pride of Devon, with cargo of Cardiff coal, consigned to John P Boyd & Co., was cut down by the Italian barque C Colombo and sank in 5 minutes. Vessel and cargo fully insured, no lives lost fortunately.

The following is the latest from the United States about wool:—

"Domestic wools have in the majority of cases been offered readily whenever called for, and at former rates, as a rule, with an occasional disposition to ease off a trifle when such a course would secure a good customer. Holders, however, are in no case openly indicating alarm over the situation or a desire to quit stock freely, but on the contrary a great many entertain much faith in the near-by future of the market, and are willing to carry and await the issue of the fall trade. In fact, the reports of constant efforts to realise by many holders is sheer nonsense, and so well in hand is the bulk of the desirable supply at present accumulated here that only a fair addition to the demand would no doubt infuse immediate strength on leading styles of clothing wools. Manufacturers it is considered are simply holding off because they have no immediate use for supplies and taking the chances for such gain as may accrue. We hear of two or three Western holders in town with their samples, and they are said to show some little anxiety about finding customers; a feature tending to increase depression if anything. Clothing wools remain quiet, but firm."

Advices from Rio by the mail give the following:—

"Exchange—Our market opened on the morning of the 1st inst. at 22½ Banks, private paper being very scarce and drawers asking 22⅝ and 9/16. At noon Banks lowered their rate to 22⅜, which they maintained until noon of 2nd inst., when they declined to draw at over 22¼, and commercial paper was passed at 22⅜ and 9/16.

"On 3rd, Banks opened at 22⅜, but at noon reduced rate to 22¼, and private bills, notwithstanding important sales of coffee, were readily negotiated at 22½ and 5/16.

"On 5th, rates became firmer, Banks opened at 22½ and commercial bills could only find money at 22⅝, 9/16 and ⅝.

"To-day, 6th inst., we quote rates firm at 22½ Bank [possibly 22⅝ might be given], and 22⅝ commercial bills.

"On Paris, rates have been 430 to 423 reis per franc for Bank, and 425 to 416 reis per other bills."

Cien leguas de Campo.
En Santiago del Estero
Orden del Exmo Gobierno de esa Provincia
Con derecho a ubicar donde se quiera
Primera vez que se vende con esta condicion
SIN BASE ALGUNA
Venta a Plazos
En nuestra casa San Martin No 51
El Martes 20 de September
A las 2 en punto de la tarde

Venderemos al mejor precio y a plazos, por orden del Exmo. Gobierno de la Provincia de Santiago del Estero y con acuerdo de su Legislatura.

Cien leguas de campo, divididas en lotes de a cuatro, teniendo sin embargo el comprador derecho a tomar desde una hasta las cien.

El Gobierno de Santiago ha sido, como lo dicimos, autorizado por su Legislatura a vender esta gran zona de tierra, pero a objeto de facilitar la operacion, la venta se hara sin otro plano que el de la Provincia, por cuanto se da el derecho de ubicar donde se quiera, dentro de los limites de la misma.

Con este derecho cualquiera persona que este en el secreto de la situacion de un campo inmediato a la plaza principal, a las quintas contiguas a la ciudad o por sus alrededores, puede pedir su ubicacion alli mismo, como tambien los que conozcan donde existen los que puedan tener pastos de primera calidad, aguas permanentes, montes, etc.

El Gobierno de Santiago no pretende con esta operacion hacer un negocio.—Su objeto se limita a fomentar el progreso de su Provincia, poniendo la tierra al alcance de todo el mundo, llamando asi a su centro la formacion de grandes establecimientos y la poblacion consiguiente.

A cada comprador se le dara un boleto con un numero de orden y en el cual se fijara un termino para pedir la ubicacion, de manera que el primera que compre, sea el primero que elija y asi sucesivamente.

Siendo la venta dentro del territorio de Santiago, ningun otro gobierno iniciara protesta alguna, lo que importara garantizar un titulo perfecto y libre de todo gravamen, habiendose resuelto que las escrituras se otorguen ante de oficina de un escribano de esta capital.

El pago se hara mitad al contado al estenderse la escritura y el resto a 6 y 12 meses en garantia del mismo campo.

En resumen—Jamas se ha puesto en venta un lote de tierra en iguales condiciones y desde hoy el publico debe preocuparse de averiguar en que punto pedir la ubicacion del numero de leguas que necesita para la plantacion de establecimientos de campo, ingenios etc.

No obstante de tener, aqui en Buenos Aires un apoderado general el Gobierno de Santiago nosotros daremos mas pormenores en nuestra casa San Martin 51.

"Creo conocer bien a mi tierra y la competencia del gremio de hacendados, y me parece que las 4 piezas que mando satisfacaran completamente sus exigencias. Ignoro los animales que se hayan presentado al remate despues de mi salida, pero mientras yo permanecia alli, puedo garantirles que jamas se han vendido toros ni de la sangre ni del tipo de los que mando.

The Herschell's Mails

London, Aug. 19th

After the storm, calm. To-day the day of the Ministerial Whitebait dinner, has been the most quiet of all the days of this session of Parliament. The favourite occupation of every one connected with the Legislature at present is to estimate when this long session will end. The probability is that a division will be taken on Mr Parnell's motion to-morrow in time to make some considerable progress with the Irish votes, of which there are no fewer than 31 to be taken. The further calculation is very simple. If these estimates and the vote of £78,000 for Cyprus, the vote of £500,000 for the year's contribution to the cost of the Afghan war, and the vote for the Transvaal war, can all be passed before the Saturday sitting is ended, the session may come to a close next week. It is not out of the question that these votes in Supply may be completed at the end of a very prolonged sitting on Friday night, and in that case the session might possibly finish on Thursday the 25th. This is the most hopeful anticipation, and it is based upon the general feeling which obtains to-day that Mr Parnell's party are content that the present debate should close to-morrow, and that the Irish Estimates shall not be obstructed.

Mr Herbert Gladstone will be in Leeds to-morrow to seek re-election as one of the members for that borough. His appointment to be an unpaid Lord of the Treasury has given rise to some pedantic controversy. Not as to whether he should seek re-eleccion, but as to whether, according to constitutional precedent, his seat becomes vacant. It is said on very high authority that there is no precedent exactly bearing upon the case of Mr Herbert Gladstone. There was great controversy in August, 1873, when his father, being the First Lord of the Treasury accepted in addition the position of Chancellor of the Exchequer and did not vacate his seat for Greenwich, upon the plea that having vacated his seat upon the acceptance of one office it was not rendered vacant by the addition of another office. Then the precedents of Lord North, Mr Perceval and Mr Canning were referred to in support of and against Mr Gladstone's action. That matter would but for the dissolution in the winter of 1873-74, have been brought before Parliament when it is believed it would have been found that the weight of precedent supported Mr Gladstone's view of the matter. Mr Herbert Gladstone's is a case quite apart. He is appointed to an office under the Crown which is technically 'one of profit,' and in regard to which if the salary had been his no supposition could be raised as to his seat not having become vacant. The decisive opinion, however, is that whether or not the salary is withheld makes no difference as to the seat, if the office is one the acceptance of which with salary would render the seat vacant. It is, indeed, obvious that were it otherwise a Government might exercise patronage without emolument to a great extent, and with no regard to the will of the constituencies. There are an increasing number of men at the present day who like office and are careless as to salary, and the right of the constituency to withhold their confidence from a member accepting office under the Crown might be infringed by the mere withholding of the salary.

At half-past two this morning there was a bill passed through Committee in the House of Commons, and read a third time, of the title of which it is said not half a dozen of the 41 members present knew the meaning. This was the Pollen Fishing (Ireland) Bill. Pollen, it appears, are fresh water herrings and this bill, which will now help, though in the slightest possible degree, to solidify the very slender statute-book of this year, proposes that the pollen fishing season in Ireland shall in future be from the 1st November to the 31st January, and gives powers to the inspectors of Irish fisheries, annually, or at such other intervals as they think fit, to extend the close season during which pollen may not be lawfully taken.

The Discharge of Contumacious Prisoners Bill, dealing with the case of Mr. Green, attracts much attention from persons who are evidently under the belief that because the bill has in a manner received the sanction of the Lord Chancellor it will become law. I have not found any well-informed person who has any such expectation. If the bill is not already it certainly will be well blocked, and I should strongly advise the friends of the Rev. Mr. Green and others to seek some surer way than a special Act of Parliament to obtain a release from the pains and penalties of the law. It does not appear likely that it would be in the power even of the Government to pass Lord Beauchamp's bill into law this sesion,

The Post-office authorities are moving for more room. With the telegraphic work always increasing and the parcel post in prospect they are looking to the site of Christ's Hospital in Newgate-street on one side and to Moorgate-street on the other, and asking the Government where and when they are to erect yet more buildings. The telegraph office opposite the General Post Office was erected when Mr Ayrton was First Commissioner of Works, and it is estimated that the cost of removing the plant would alone be more than £50,000. In the end this solid building will perhaps be raised by another story, which it would well bear; and for the rest the London Post Office will be advised to cease from their constant work of centralisation. If they attempt centralisation with the parcel post the heart of the city will soon be congested beyond endurance.

London has not yet 'gone out of town.' There were nearly 200 peers in the House of Lords last night, but there are not many in town to-day, and after Saturday the Government will experience no little difficulty in keeping a House. The aspect of Pall Mall is not, however, as yet quite that of the dead season, nor is Belgravia wholly shut up. The members of Brooks's Club will at the close of the session be guests of the Reform Club, and the season of fashionable repairs will then generally set in. The cooler weather of the last fortnight has no doubt contributed to preserve a rather unwonted appearance of life in the west end of the capital.

Dublin, August 18th.

A slight disagreement has been caused between the Property Defence Association and the Orange Emergency Committee through the importation of Orange labourers from England by the former Association, which is possessed of a considerable amount of money, while the Orange Emergency Committee, with less money, possess in the Orange Society an organisation capable of supplying labourers. The Emergency Committee claim that in Ireland they can procure an unlimited number of anti-Land League Orange labourers who will accept half-a-crown per day os payment for saving Boycotted crops, but the Property Defence Association, not relying upon this assurance or not desiring to yield in importance to the Irish Orange Society, telegraphed a few days ago to Liverpool and Glasgow for a large number of labourers at 7s. 6d. per day. Sixty three of these men arrived this evening from Liverpool. They are of the artisan rather than of the peasant class and are looked upon as foreigners. An attempt is being made to bridge over the difficulty between the two associations and probably matters will be arranged. It is arranged that 110 of the English and Scotch Orangemen are to go to Mr Bence Jones, in the South of Ireland, and another large force to Lough Mask, in the West.

Messrs. J. Ballard and R. Jervis, two of the leading Orangemen of Liverpool, yesterday received nearly 200 additional offers from members ot the Orange body to proceed to Ireland to aid in the harvesting operations of Boycotted landlords. After the departure of the 60 men on Tuesday there then remained about 400 in reserve. The Liverpool Committee are awaiting instructions from the Emergency Committee of Dublin before despatching any more men. The volunteers are of the artisan class, though many of them have had experience of farm work. They are liberally paid for their services.

The Limerick correspondent of the Irish Times writes: 'The attack on young Mr Townsend and the two officers of the 48th Regiment at Ballylanders on Sunday has produced quite a commotion, and orders were issued on Tuesday to Mr Clifford Lloyd, R.M., at Kilfinane, to proceed to the scene of the outrage, with the view of arresting the offenders who demolished Lord Massy's shooting lodge and threatened the lives of the officers and young Mr Townsend. It is reported that sixty arrests have been made.'

MALTINE is a highly concentrated extract of malted Barley, malted Wheat, and malted Oats, containing, undiminished and unimpaired, all the nutritious principles that can be extracted from these cereals. By the most carefully conducted scientific process we are enabled to offer a perfect article, possessing five to ten times the beneficial and nutritive merit of any alcoholic or fermented Extract of Malt.

"WHEAT and OATS are especially rich in muscular and fat-producing elements."—Liebig.

MALTINE will increase both weight and flesh in most persons of thin habit.

MALTINE is particularly recommended for delicate Females and for weak and debilitated Children and Infants.

For Deficient Lactation, and for Mothers whilst Nursing, MALTINE is especially recommended.

MALTINE is the most important combination for use in Constipation.

MALTINE is entirely free from all products of Fermentation, such as Alcohol and Carbonic Acid Gas.

MALTINE is very palatable and pleasant, and will be readily taken by the youngest child.

The Compounds of Maltine
